Information about the town and/or neighborhood	- Marbella is on Spain's southern coast, the Costa Del Sol, in the region of Andalucía. The population of Marbella is 141,000 and receives an influx of tourists during the summer months. Being a coastal city, Marbella has many beautiful beaches and seaside restaurants and cafes, which are great places to view the sunsets over the sea. There is a beautiful historic section of the city known as the old town with cobbled streets, churches and part of the original castle of Marbella. Behind the city are mountains with hiking trails offering incredible views of the Mediterranean. The size of the city makes it easy to walk from place to place, and there is also an excellent public transport system. There are many amenities including gyms, sports clubs and social groups.
